D-06-20-4

Date: June 17, 2020
Bulletin: All Tag and Title Service Agents
From: Business Licensing and Driver Instructional Services
Subject: Expired Maryland Safety Inspections and Extending 60-day Excise Tax Credit

This memo is to advise Dealerships and Tag and Title Agencies on operating procedures relating to the Maryland Safety Inspection and 60-Day Excise Tax Credit.

Maryland Safety Inspection (MSI)

Please be advised the MDOT MVA in consultation with the Maryland State Police Automotive Safety Enforcement Division will accept an MSI that is expired beyond the 90-day period but not to exceed 120 days. This will be valid for MSIs processed on or after March 5, 2020. These transactions will need to be walked into MDOT MVA Branch Office for processing. Inspections expired for 121 days or more will need to go through the reinspection process.

60-Day Excise Tax Credit

Please be advise the MDOT MVA is currently, waiving the 60-day Excise Tax credit requirement until 30 days after the Governor's Executive order is lifted. Transactions of this type will need to be walked into a MDOT MVA Branch Office for processing.
